06 The waiver

By commissioning Artists, Inc., you, the Client, acknowledge and agree that:
1. You are hiring artists. Artists have opinions. You have kindly agreed to stop having them.
2. You surrender all creative control, including "make the logo bigger" and "can it pop more".
3. You get the reviews your commission includes, and not one more. After that, what you commission is what you get.
4. You may not request "something viral". Virality is a weather event, not a deliverable.
5. You keep full control over the brief, the product, and how proud you feel afterwards.

- [ ] I have read the waiver and hand over creative control. *
